Please see the R.W. sept. note on p. 12 ante and the draft Memo below. Under Rule 38(2) of the Legal Practitioners Fee Rules, a junior practitioner engaged with a senior practicing is entitled to one third of the fee allowed to the senior. In the City, the High Ct. has also discretion to fix the fee at one half of the senior's fee, instead of one third. In the circumstances, it is not necessary to consult the G.P. in the matter. This sept. may suggest that orders may be issued to the effect that the junior allowed to the G.P. in Memo No. 1
